PROPERTY OWNERS'
QUALIFICATION STANDARDS & CODE OF ETHICS

- 1. Your rental property must be in Michigan.
- 2. The rented property must include one or more of the following: Cottage - Cabin - Chalet - Condominium - Bed & Breakfast (hotels/motels are only eligible if they rent one of the above described lodgings).
- 3. Cleanliness ... properties must be free of mold, rust, unusual odor, dust or dirt-caked surfaces and insect infestation.
- 4. Maintenance ... properties must not have: uneven, cracked or bowed foundations, ceiling or walls; cracks, breaks or excessive wear of flooring, windows, furniture, appliances, etc.; holes or tears in bedding and furniture; leaky pipes, non-functioning faucet, toilets, showers, etc.
- 5. Safety ... electrical systems must not have exposed wires, uncovered and/or overloaded outlets. Sea walls, stairways or walkways must be in good repair. Trash and debris must be kept in appropriate containers or away from guest activities, open areas and lodgings.
- 6. Full Disclosure Policy ... owners agree to not misrepresent their property features and amenities and will provide complete information to guests on restrictions, security/cleaning deposits and refund policies to callers/guests.

Guest Complaints

We do monitor guests' complaints. When received, we contact the property owner/manager for follow-up. Repeated VALID complaints will result in your property's removal.

Property Visits

Our writers regularly visit properties in Michigan. These visits can be with or without prior notice. During our visit we will tour your lodging/resort, take photographs and conduct a brief interview with the property manager or owner. If we find your property does not comply with the information you provided on your Application, you may be subject to removal.

Properties visited that we feel offer unique features, guest programs, quality and amenities will be considered for a "Featured Property" and/or Editor's Choice for the Michigan Vacation Guide. There is no charge should your property be selected as a "Featured Property" or Editor's Choice.
